'Chrichton' Staged At Narbonne Hi

The amusing events of the "The Admirable Chrichton," will come to life Friday, January 11 at 8 p.m., as Narbonne High School's actors present the well known play by J. M. Barrie.

The play is concerned with the adventures of a wealthy English family and the noble butler, Chrichton. For years Chrichton serves his employers faithfully. However, when the family, butler included, shipwreck on a deserted island, nature plays one of her surprise reversals.

Cast in the lead of "Chrichton" is senior student, Warren Heaton. His leading lady is Linda McReynolds who portrays Lady Mary. Sharing the spotlight with the two principals will be Eugene Minor as Ernest; Beverly Beckett as Lady Agatha; Bob Miller as Lord Loam; Marcia Molek as Lady Cathrine; Bob Chapman, Elgie Whightman, Leo Neuman, and Sandra Canning. Smaller parts will be taken by the candidates for student government offices.

The Narbonne High School auditorium has recently been equipped with acoustical tiling and has been re-decorated, according to Mrs. Lizbeth Ludwig, director, and Herbert Morey, principal. Tickets will be sold at the door for the production.
